

"COUSIN EVERETT" GETS PRISON TERM

Throws Himself on Mercy of Judge Landis on Charge of Impersonating Officer.

CHICAGO, June 3.—Everett Harding, who called himself "cousin of President Harding," precipitated himself on the mercy of Judge Landis yesterday by pleading guilty to the charge of "impersonating a Federal official." Judge Landis indicated that his "quality of mercy" is not adapted to confidence men and decided to hear evidence in order to fix punishment. He was then sentenced to fifteen months in the Federal Penitentiary at Leavenworth.

Schulman, a photographer at the Koebe Studios, said he took the photograph of "Sister Pearl" and the family of Everett and street scenes. "He told me he was President Harding's second cousin and his assistant secretary," said Schulman. "Then he borrowed $25 to take Mrs. Modill McCormick and other women to luncheon."

"Did you get anything?" asked the Court. "Nothing," was the answer. "I went on the special car to Washington and took more pictures."

Lillian Percival, manager of the Koebe Studios, "understood" that Everett Harding was to get $7,200 a year as the President's assistant secretary, and so caused a worthless check for $500 and permitted bills for $500 worth of photographs.

C. E. Moore, city ticket agent for the Pennsylvania Railroad, said he was offered a place on the Interstate Commerce Commission and provided tickets and a special car for "Cousin Everett's" famous junket to the inauguration, later accepting a worthless check for $1,500 in payment.

Harry H. Murray, a salesman, said he resigned his job in expectation of a fat salary as tobacco expert in Illinois for the Internal Revenue Bureau, with the management of the Illinois Magazine and a chain of Harding's candy stores. He lent Everett Harding $100, he said, part of it to defray the cost of a little party for Uncle Warren's sister, who's coming to visit us.

Everett Harding, sitting beside Henry Seligman, his lawyer, grinned at the witnesses, told how they had swallowed the bait. When Moore testified that Everett had offered him an Interstate Commerce Commission job, even Judge Landis ducked behind his handkerchief.

Everett told Judge Landis that George Harvey, Iowa Ambassador to England, had promised him the position of secretary to the President, and assured him the appointment had "come through." He named Judge Van Fleet of Indiana as having verified Col. Harvey's statement.

After Judge Landis had passed sentence, he asked Everett whether he had anything to say. "Yes, I have," said "cousin Everett." "I am through with politics. I intended making it my life work. I have found politics is no place for an honest man. I want to make everything right with all those persons. I want to pay back all."

Little Pearl Harding, the widely advertised "baby of the White House," sat near her brother. With her were her father and mother.

TRY BACKERS OF CHARLES.

VIENNA, June 3 (Associated Press).—Eleven former army officers, including Major Gen. Joseph Hammer, were placed on trial before a special court here yesterday on the charge of having committed treason in connection with the recent attempt of former Emperor Charles to regain the throne of Hungary.

The charges are based on the allegation that the men organized legionary troops for the purpose of restoring the Hapsburg dynasty in Austria and placed themselves in the service of Hungary in pursuance of that plan.

BURGULARS BREAK INTO SIX NORTH PELHAM HOMES.

Policemen Chase Them Away. Their Set Plunder One Bathing Suit, Can Opener and Hat.

Six homes in North Pelham, near Mount Vernon, were entered yesterday by four burglars, two of whom were fired on by Policeman Reed as they were robbing the home of former Village President Peter Ceder. The patrolman saw one man hiding in the bushes and fired at the other as he was jumping from a window of the "other home. The burglars escaped, leaving most of their plunder. Two other burglars were chased to the New Haven Railroad, where they boarded a freight train.

The shooting aroused a number of residents, who organized a posse but could not find the burglars. They only succeeded in carrying off Mr. Ceder's sewing coat and a new hat of Mrs. Ceder. A big bundle of silverware and furs were found in the hallway.

Among the other homes entered were those of H. Dolan, Walter J. Hedley, John J. Manning and the Rev. Mr. McNichol of St. Catherine's Church. The burglars wrecked the rectory kitchen, where they opened out the icebox and took away the can opener, said the Monsignor. "They did not take the silverware; perhaps it was not good enough," he added.

Newspaper Backed by Labor Quits.

BUTTE, Mont., June 3.—The Butte Bulletin, established as a daily evening newspaper in 1917, has suspended publication because of financial difficulties. R. B. Smith, manager, said the publication owed $27,000 and had assets of $36,000. The Bulletin had the support of the Montana Federation of Labor. It championed the one big union idea.

BRITAIN MAY ASK GERMANY TO EXTRADITE BERGDOLL.

Violation by Smacker of Canadian Passport Laws to Be Made Basis.

WASHINGTON, June 3.—Interest in the case of Grover Cleveland Bergdoll, escaped draft evader, has been magnified by the British Government. War Department officials said yesterday, and it is possible that that Government will assist the United States in its efforts to obtain his return from Germany.

Officials would not say just how Great Britain might assist in the matter, but Bergdoll is known to have got to Germany on a Canadian passport, and it has been suggested that Great Britain might ask for the extradition of the Smacker on the ground of a violation of Canadian Passport Laws.
